Section 3 - Questions and answers

Are there any other charges that I need to consider?

Depending on your investment choices, you may incur charges from investment managers, stockbrokers and fund managers. If you invest in commercial property, you may incur solicitor or property manager fees. Your financial adviser may also take a charge for their services, which they will agree with you. Value Added Tax (VAT) may be applicable to these charges.

Third parties may take their charges from cash they hold on your behalf, if applicable, or they may be paid from your SIPP bank account.

How do these charges get paid?

We send invoices when charges are due and automatically deduct these charges from your SIPP bank account.

If there is insufficient cash available when charges become due, at our discretion, we may sell investments within your IPS Pension Builder SIPP to pay charges.

It is therefore important that you, or your financial adviser, regularly monitor the balance of your SIPP bank account to ensure there is sufficient cash available to pay any charges that are due.

Can I use my SIPP bank account as an investment?

Your SIPP bank account is not a suitable investment vehicle, as it is primarily designed for holding cash over short periods whilst your investments are being made, or your benefits or charges are being paid.

What rate of interest is paid on my SIPP bank account?

Money held in your product bank account attracts interest. The rate of interest we receive from our banking arrangements is higher than the rate paid for your product's cash balance, due to the total amount we hold with them. We keep the difference as retained interest.

Retaining interest helps us to keep our charges low, increase investment in our technology and provide higher service levels. The rate of interest we pay will change from time to time, and the current rate you are receiving can be found on the banking page of our website at www.jameshay.co.uk/bankaccounts.

You can find more information on the IPS Pension Builder SIPP by visiting the literature pages on our website at www.jameshay.co.uk, or by contacting us on 03455 212 414.
